ABOUT THE FACILITATOR

Randi Johl brings over 20+ years of experience and leadership in municipal government. She has served cities and special districts throughout California in various capacities, including as a law clerk in a municipal law firm, a legal analyst, a legislative affairs director and a city clerk. Most recently, Randi served as the project manager for a local revenue ballot measure generating over $20 million annually. Randi serves as the Legislative Director for CCAC and Board Member for the League of CA Cities, working with various State legislators and stakeholders on key pieces of legislation affecting open government and elections, including districting. Randi is a past president of CCAC and Chair of IIMC's Legislative Committee. She has served on various committees and task forces with CCAC, League and IIMC. Randi is a regular presenter at related conferences and seminars.

Randi Johl received her juris doctor, cum laude, from Trinity Law and Graduate School. She is the proud recipient of a "Law Student of the Year" and "City Clerk of the Year" award and has a passion for public service.

ABOUT THE BOOK

In a life filled with meaning and accomplishment, Michelle Obama has emerged as one of the most iconic and compelling women of our era. As First Lady of the United States of America—the first African American to serve in that role—she helped create the most welcoming and inclusive White House in history.

With unerring honesty and lively wit, she describes her triumphs and her disappointments, both public and private, telling her full story as she has lived it—in her own words and on her own terms. Warm, wise, and revelatory, Becoming is the deeply personal reckoning of a woman of soul and substance who has steadily defied expectations—and whose story inspires us to do the same.
