ABOUT THE BOOK

What does it take to lead people into a burning building? How do the loyal leaders of the New York City Fire Department develop so much loyalty, trust, and grace under pressure that their subordinates will risk their very lives for them?

In a tough-talking, no nonsense style, John Salka uses real-life world stories to convey leadership imperatives illustrated by harrowing real-life situations. The principles in First In, Last Out will help managers become more confident, coherent, and commanding.
