

Jennifer M. Ferraiolo, MMC
City Clerk
City of Lodi

Jennifer Ferraiolo first took an interest in local government in 1987 when she worked a part-time summer position in the Lodi City Clerk's Office where she got a taste for the interesting, varied, and detailed functions of a busy elections office.

In 1988, she took a full-time position as an Administrative Clerk in the Lodi Public Works Department, and in less than a year transferred to the City Clerk's Office. Jennifer has served the City Clerk's Office since 1989 as an Administrative Clerk, Deputy City Clerk, Assistant City Clerk, and City Clerk, first in 1993 when she was only 23 years old and more recently since 2014.

Jennifer has been a member of both IIMC and CCAC since 1989; she obtained her CMC designation in 2002 and her MMC designation in 2017; and was appointed to fill the vacant Region 3 (Central Valley) Director position in 2017.

Jennifer is married and has three children. She enjoys traveling with her husband, spending time with her family, reading, and playing Scrabble.
