

Wendy Klock-Johnson, MMC
Assistant City Clerk
City of Sacramento

Wendy Klock-Johnson has worked for the City of Sacramento for over 19 years. Serving in the Office of the City Clerk for over 9 years; she started as the City's Records Manager and now serves as an Assistant City Clerk. Among her duties Wendy oversees the City's Records Management Program and the Records Unit that processes over 4,500 public record requests annually. In addition, Wendy is responsible for elections, filing compliance, and contract processing.

Wendy is active in supporting her fellow municipal clerks through education and has presented at local, state, and international conferences on records management, technology, and social media. Wendy holds a Bachelor's Degree in Organizational Development and a Master's Degree in Strategic Communications. She received her Certified Municipal Clerk designation in 2012; received her MMC in 2016.

Wendy lives in Midtown Sacramento and enjoys living in the community she serves. She is also a respected advocate in the service dog and service dog accessibility community. She is a long-time volunteer and supporter of Canine Companions for Independence, and usually can be found in the company of a very cute puppy-in-training while at seminars and conferences.
