

Molly McLaughlin Perry, MPA, CMC
City Clerk
City of Irvine

Molly McLaughlin Perry was appointed City Clerk of the City of Irvine in 2014, returning to the City after serving the City of Rancho Santa Margarita community for 6 ½ years. A 20-year City Clerk professional, Molly has continued expanding her education by obtaining her Certified Municipal Clerk designation in 2003, Bachelor of Science in Business in 2013, followed by her Masters of Public Administration in 2015.

Molly's professional focus continues to be community outreach, with a strong focus on voter outreach. Molly believes that voter inclusivity is paramount to all communities and Molly collaborates closely with the Orange County Registrar of Voters, hosting Early Voting Centers in the communities that she has served, since 2008. Molly is a voting member on the Orange County Election Working Group, where community stakeholders discuss voter issues and opportunities.

The Southern California City Clerk's Association awarded Molly the, "City Clerk of the Year Award" in 2013 and a "2013 Honorable Mention in Public Relations" by the California City Clerk's Association.
